FREELANCE FULL-STACK DEVELOPER

I started my journey in web development in March 2020. First I studied with web resources like CS50 and OpenClassrooms then I attended courses at the Epitech engineer school and successfully graduated.

I'm often working for web agencies and individuals. My main activities are Nuxt.js, Next.js, Django and some custom code and maintenance on Wordpress and Shopify.

I'm currently looking for web development freelance missions (short and long terms) either remote or in Paris/Lyon area.
