FREELANCE FULL-STACK DEVELOPER

After 6 years working in the music industry I started my retraining in March 2020.
Because of the virus that shall not be named I was unable to organize concerts for a year and a half.
Thanks to this opportunity I could focus on my second passion (computers) and learn web development. First I studied with web resources like CS50 and OpenClassrooms then I attended courses at the Epitech engineer school and successfully graduated.

I'm now fully dedicated to programing and looking for web development freelance missions either teleworking or in the Paris area.
